

Closing the Gap for Students from Poverty

September 27, 2016

8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. (CDT)

Workshop #012-17

GRREC Office & Training Facility • 230 Technology Way • Bowling Green 42101

The Green River Regional Educational Cooperative is pleased to offer this conference appropriate for school administrators, district leaders, teachers, and paraprofessionals in grades K-12. The conference will focus on specific strategies to address the unique needs of students from poverty to help close achievement gaps. Dr. Kathleen Cooter, of Bellarmine University, will be the keynote speaker in the morning. Participants will select two afternoon sessions to attend from the following choices: leading a high poverty school; the importance of relationships; vocabulary strategies; appropriate feedback; and engagement and technology.

“Change comes not from an insight or event. Rather, it comes from a choice to be a part of something greater.”

--Eric Jensen
